

about tbr /

The TBR Group is a recruiting agency specializing in permanent placement for sales and nursing professionals throughout the United States. The TBR Group was founded in 2002 in Atlanta, GA; through hard work and dedication to both our candidates and clients, we continue to experience rapid growth.

tbr advantage /

The TBR Group is uniquely positioned to find the right candidate for your company. Whether you are looking for entry level or senior level professionals, we can find the right candidate for you! Since we have a background directly in the sales and recruiting industry, we are able to screen for - and find - the top talent available for your company. Our successful experience and overall approach means that we will efficiently schedule your interviews with only those candidates that possess the qualifications required for the position. This ensures the most productive use of time for both you and your managers. Discover the TBR Advantage for your business!

destination
achievement satisfaction.

WE OFFER:

- Guarantees on our candidates
- Expertise and experience in recruiting
- Specialized screening
- Flexible recruiting plans
- Commitment to service

RESULTS!

overall benefits /

The TBR Group offers quality staffing solutions for your business needs. As a result of market cycles, special projects, or changes in business volume, companies of today often seek flexible solutions to their staffing needs. The TBR Group places experienced, pre-screened, and pre-qualified sales and nursing professionals in medical device, pharmaceutical, medical, software, and technology industries, among others. As an employer, you are looking for capable, reliable and productive employees to help you achieve your business goals.

the solution /

We spend time on your prospective hire so you won't have to. The right person hired the right way saves your company time and money. The TBR Group provides pre-screened, pre-qualified candidates. We recruit carefully, interview and screen thoroughly, test accurately, and respond quickly. We verify skills, complete background checks, and can customize our services to your specific requirements.

The TBR Group is committed to maintaining the highest standard of excellence with every candidate we place with our clients!